focus on our family

Jaime Milestone was baptized at Washington Christian Church January 17, 2010. Jaime is the daughter of Jeff Worthington and Candy Davis. She attended Washington Community High School and the University of Illinois-Springfield. Her grandmother is Carol Worthington.

She is married to Eric Milestone, who was born to Joseph and Ann Milestone on January 13, 1971. He graduated from Peoria Central High School. They have two children, Karli, born June 12, 2003, and Sydney, born July 18, 2005. Jaime and Eric met through a get-together with her sister and brother-in-law, Jody and James, and other friends. They were married on April 14, 2001, at an outside wedding at her mom's home in Tremont.

Eric works third shift at the Peoria Journal Star, and Jaime works at Conservation Services Group in Peoria, and works with the "Act on Energy" programs. Although Jaime was brought up Mormon, she had attended WCC many times before with her grandparents. So when they moved back to Washington from Brimfield last March to be closer to their family—attending WCC was a natural fit.

Jaime was once in the crowd on "The Price is Right" and still has her nametag from the show. Jaime enjoys tap dance, and Eric loves to hunt and motocross. The Milestone's have two dogs and two cats. Jaime's last book she read was, "Barbaro" a story about a race horse—she is a big horse fan. The last movie they attended was "Alvin and the Chipmunks". Jaime is a Country music fan; she enjoys listening to Toby Keith.

Jaime has attended Bert Nordhielm's and Mike Bochart's Sunday School classes, so if you see Jaime, Eric, or their two adorable little girls, Karli and Sydney, please stop and introduce yourself!

Visiting Residents at WCV: WCV needs volunteers who would provide one-to-one visits for several of our residents.
