August Mission Moment: Jonathan and Amanda Moore

This month we will be featuring Jon and Amanda and their work in Southeast Asia. They have been successful in starting a small group for prayer and Bible study and hope to grow when they return. Since late June they have been back in the States on furlough as Amanda prepares to have their second child, who is due in November. Jonathan and Amanda will be at WCC on Sunday, August 15th, and will give a PowerPoint presentation in the sanctuary during Sunday school hour. Please join us at 10:00 am that Sunday and see how the Lord is working through Jon and Amanda in Southeast Asia!

Bowling Anyone? Do you like to bowl?

Do you enjoy spending time with friends? Would you like to do something FUN during the fall and winter months? Then this is just the thing for you! Bryan and Kim Sheets are interested in compiling a co-ed church bowling team for a church league. The league plays on Thursdays at 6:30 PM at Plaza Lanes from late August through mid-April. Cost is approximately $12 per week per bowler. A one-time fee of $15 is also required to be sanctioned in the American Bowling Congress. Five bowlers are needed per week. Bowlers would be put on a rotation basis, depending on how many bowlers the team has. Any questions or if you would like to be included on the team, please contact Bryan or Kim at 444-9207 by today, August 8.
