 missions

Today we will be hosting several students from the Christian Campus House at Eastern Illinois University. During the Sunday school hour they will share with us about their mission and how the Campus House tries to show Jesus' love at EIU. Please consider joining us to see and hear first-hand how college students are being impacted for Christ. If you have high school-age students tell them to come as well so they can see what kind of fellowship opportunities are available through this ministry at EIU.
